

What is Charlestown Caring Group?

We are an incorporated community based organisation working to enable people the support to remain in their homes. Staff and clients are supported by a dedicated and friendly team of volunteers.

Charlestown Caring Group Inc. is funded by the Australian Government to provide services to people primarily over the age of 65, or over 50 years if Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander.

A fee schedule is provided at assessment or upon request.

Copies are available at the office.

Services will not be refused due to an inability to pay. Fees can be negotiated when experiencing financial hardship.
